QUESTION 1: The City of Edmonton should take more action to make municipal land available for low-income affordable housing development (eg. surplus school land).

I believe we need to use all the land within our borders to in-fill where possible. All citizens have to right to live in different areas of the city. We must however, consult with the neighbours and ensure the development meets the flavour of the established area.

QUESTION 2: There is not enough subsidized housing in some neighbourhoods, and the City must ensure a better distribution in all neighbourhoods throughout Edmonton.

No answer.

QUESTION 3: The City should seek to use zoning flexibility (on issues such as required parking spaces) to support the development of more affordable housing initiatives.

No answer.

QUESTION 4: The City should commit funding to extend the Cornerstones Affordable Housing program.

No answer.

QUESTION 5: The City should create a comprehensive plan to address the need for thousands of units of affordable housing in a comprehensive and coordinated way that includes attention to schools, public transportation, and community services.

No answer.

QUESTION 6: The City is doing a good job to end chronic homelessness through the current 10 Year Plan and the work of the Edmonton Homeless Commission.

We are coming closer to the goal and we have move the stick. We have more work to do for sure. Lots of good things have been happening but we need to keep working on this important issue.

QUESTION 7: The City must be more active in advocating with the provincial and federal governments for more funding and better policies on affordable housing.

No answer.

QUESTION 8: The City must develop better ways to gather views of all residents about housing issues and not depend so significantly on input from community leagues and developers.

No answer.

QUESTION 9: Finally, you may provide any additional comments about any other aspects of housing and homelessness.

A society should be judged may the way the treat the people who need them the most. We do fairly well but we can do a lot better. We need to keep this issue on the forefront.
